

MEDINA COUNTY
ADULT PROBATION DEPARTMENT
PROBATION OFFICER
INTENSIVE SUPERVISION UNIT
INTERNSHIP OPPORTUNITY

Seeking intern to participate in case management of felony offenders under the Intensive Supervision Unit of the Medina County Adult Probation Department. This position will require you to assist with court probation violation hearings, supervision of approximately 60 probationers, preparing notification/status reports to the court, conducting investigative work as well as apply best practices addressing changing offender behavior. You will learn how to effectively supervise a caseload of felony offenders while ensuring compliance with terms and conditions of their release supervision. Must have critical thinking skills, strong written and oral communication skills.

Qualifications: Student, or recent graduate, who is working towards a degree in criminal justice, psychology or sociology or a recent college graduate with the above mentioned major(s).

This will be a paid position ($12.00 per hour).

Email submissions only

Contact Person: VERONICA PERRY,
Chief Probation Officer
Start Date: ASAP
End Date: flexible

EMAIL: vperry@medinacountyprobation.org

Inquiries accepted until December 30, 2017
No phone calls please